Archaeological Science Workshop feedback

Thanks for booking/attending our first professional development workshop on Archaeological Science!

Whether you attended or you could not make it this time, please take some time to leave us some feedback. The ECR network and the RPAIG have got plans to continue this series, and a 'Public Archaeology and the Media' session is being planned for September. However, we want to hear from YOU!

What topics would you like us to cover?

Did you enjoy the format?

If you could not make it, what would make you come next time?

Thanks for helping us grow!
