

Connecting archaeologists across the Roman frontier since 2023.

January, 2026

Call for Posters

RAC/TRAC 2026

Missed the chance to submit a paper abstract? No worries, there is still time to submit a poster! Make your completed project, work-in-progress, new initiative, etc., known in a visually pleasing way in Aarhus (Denmark), between 21st and 23rd of May 2026.

Deadline: 31st of January 2025

Submit a poster abstract

Call for Papers

Cremations in Archaeology 2026

The conference, organized in collaboration between the Natural History Museum in Vienna, the University of Vienna, and the Austrian Archaeological Institute of the Academy of Sciences, welcomes contributions on the latest research findings on cremated human remains and their archaeological contexts and scientific approaches. The conference will be 22-24 October, 2026 in Vienna.

Deadline: 30th of April 2026

Submit an abstract

RFG Spring Conference 2026

The next conference for the Roman Finds Group will take place at the Grosvenor Museum, Chester on 13-14 March 2026, hosted in conjunction with the University of Chester and the Grosvenor Museum. The theme for the conference is 'Recent Roman finds and Research from Wales and the West' and we are hoping to showcase some of the exciting work being done in this region. If you would be interested in presenting, please get in touch with Rachel Frame at rfgconferences@gmail.com

New Event: Writing Residential

Are you looking for a distraction-free environment to finish that PhD? What about the novel you told everyone you would write? We've got the right place for you.

Come join the first Vindolanda Residential Writing Retreat, 9th to 13th February 2026. In the picture-perfect context of a Roman Fort on Hadrian's Wall, with unlimited visits to the Vindolanda and Roman Army Museum included for a year, join the Network's co-founder for a week of structured writing, with plenty of time for feedback. The Writing retreat lasts Monday to Friday, 9:30 to 4:00 - five full working days of productivity! Teas, coffees and pack lunch included, evening meals self-catered in the Trust's lovely on-site research facility.

Learn More and Book your Spot!

PhD Postings

PhD Position in the History of Authoritarian Politics in Ancient Rome

The position is open at York University, Toronto, as part of the project The Politics of Repression in Ancient Rome: Discourses and Practices, which is supported by a five-year Social Sciences and Humanities. The position will begin in Fall 2026 and funding is guaranteed for years 1–5.

Deadline: 15th of January 2026

More information

Five PhD Positions in Late Antique, Medieval and Early Modern Studies

The Department of Historical Studies at Central European University in Vienna offers five funded doctoral positions on the above-mentioned topics, starting in September 2026. The successful candidates will receive a tuition waiver and a living stipend for four years, as well as opportunities for additional funds.

Deadline: 4th of February 2026

More information

Fellowship Postings

Career Development in European Archaeology

Keble College, Oxford, is seeking to appoint an early-career academic to use the 3-year period offered to start building an international research profile, while participating in the academic activities of the College. The Fellowship starts in October 2026 and addresses research interests in European Archaeology within the period from the Late Neolithic to the 12th century AD.

Deadline: 15th of January 2026

More information

Job Postings

Assistant/ Associate Professorship, Bilkent University

Bilkent University offers a full-time faculty position for researchers with a special focus on Anatolia or the surrounding regions. The research area is open, but topics on Classical Archaeology, Archaeological Sciences, and/ or Digital Archaeology are especially welcome.

Deadline: 16th of January 2026

More information

Lecturer in Classical Studies

The University of London - School of Advanced Study is opening up an open-ended lectureship at the Institute of Classical Studies. The postholder is expected to extend the current training programme of the ICS, but will also be encouraged to develop their own research agenda.

A PhD in Classical Studies or a related discipline is desired.

Deadline: 15th of January 2026

More information

Archaeological Assistants at the Vindolanda Trust

The Vindolanda Trust is looking for two archaeological assistant. These are 7 months Full Time contracts, geared towards Early Career archaeologists with 3 months to 1 year fieldwork experience.

One of the archaeological assistants will be based at the fort at Magna, on an NLHF funded project focusing on the impact of climate change on buried archaeology.

The other will be based at Roman Vindolanda, and during the excavation break in July will be assisting the Curator in conserving the artifacts from the excavations.

Deadline: 16th of January 2026

More info and apply

Researcher of the month

Keshlan Padayachee

Phd Student at Cardiff University

My research examines the archaeology of Roman imperialism, focusing on Wales within the wider Roman provinces. Using postcolonial and decolonising approaches, I reassess cultural change, identity, and power. I am especially interested in Roman material culture, provincial art, and community co-production in heritage, bridging scholarly interpretation with public engagement and inclusive narratives.

Roman Frontiers ECR network | Chesterholm Museum | Bardonia Mill, NE477JN GB

Unsubscribe | Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Try email marketing for free today!